
CODE OF ETHICS

A free resource for Healthcare Professionals

HEALTH FORCE

Introduction

The primary mission of Health Force is to improve the quality of healthcare throughout the United States by providing experienced, high-quality healthcare professionals on contract travel assignments to hospitals experiencing variable labor shortages.

Health Force believes in operating at a higher standard - one that provides fair, competitive pay, respectful treatment and communication with traveling healthcare professionals and that builds a community that offers fulfilling work assignments across the country. Our core values are:

- Dignity and worth of the person
- Importance of human relationships
- Service
- Fair and equal treatment
- Integrity
- Competence

The purpose of the Health Force Code of Ethics

At Health Force, we believe that professional ethics are at the core of our work. We have an obligation to articulate our basic values and ethical principles. The Health Force Code of Ethics sets forth these values and principles to guide employee and traveler conduct.

Our Promises

Based on our values and ethical principals above, Health Force makes these promises to all employees, travelers, and clients:

1. We will respect you, your professional goals, and your contribution to the profession.
2. We will engage you in a way that builds the most productive and mutually-beneficial relationships.
3. Our service to you will remain our top priority.
4. We will treat you fairly and equally, and in doing so earn your trust.
5. We will serve you honestly and professionally at all times.
6. We value your professional competence and will make every effort to provide you with opportunities to grow.

Does your travel company subscribe to a Code of Ethics? Are they committed to a core set of values and ethical principals aimed at creating the most beneficial relationships for all? At Health Force, we believe this commitment is critical to the success of all employees, travleres, and clients. Have questions? Email us at info@health-force.com